STATUTES OF INDIANA. GAVIN & HORD'S REVISION.

The second volume of Messrs Gavin & Hord's compiletion of Indiana Statutes has just appeared. This volume Dearborn-O. F. Roberts, Alf. Bregan 2 completes their work. Its mechanical execution is ver creditable; and the skill, learning, and labor which the editors have bestowed on it, merit the highest praise. None but learned, diligent lawyers could have produced

The second volume embraces all the public statutes of Fayette and Union-Russell B. Perry. . volumes; so that the reader can see at a glance all the Grant-James Henley legislation in force on any given subject. Take, for ex- Greene-John Humphreys Pleas-the editors publish the act at large, and they also | Hancock-Geo. Y. Morgan..... all the other acts contained in the revision of 1852.

The editors have added much to the value of these volumes-especially the last-by the copious and learned notes with which the volumes abound. These notes indicate much labor and legal acumen. They furnish us, in a Jasper and Pulaski-John Darroch....l concise and accurate form, with all the adjudications of Jennings- -- Hutchings our Supreme Court on these statutes. These adjudica- Jefferson-David C. Branham and J. tions being now very numerous, the references to them administration of justice. The editors have also referred, Johnson and Morgan-Thomas W. in their notes, to numerous decisions in other States, made on statutes similar to ours. An excellence of these volumes, not to be overlooked Kosciusko and Wabash--Jos. Marshal is the full and accurate index appended to each. In Indi- Knox-William E. This provoking defect Lake has been completely remedied in the volumes under re. Laporte-James Forester and W. This is the first time that private enterprize has attempted the publication of Indiana statutes. The attempt, I do not doubt, will be successful, and will duly reward the learned editors and enterprizing publishers. Every lawyer will, of course, purchase these volumes; and every clerk, sheriff, and justice of the peace of the Morgan-J. J. Johnson State, will find it to his advantage to own them.

DAVID M'DONALD. Indianapolis, June 5, 1862 The foregoing notice by Judge McDonald, of Gavin & Ohio and Switzerland-R. N. Lamb. . . Hoap's Compilation of the Statutes of Indiana, is not designed as a puff of the work, but is an unsolicited commendation of the ability, accuracy, and completeness with which these volumes have been prepared.

the press, is being delivered to subscribers as rapidly as Putnam-Austin H. Puett and George possible. This edition of the statutes will be found a necessity to every lawyer, justices of the peace, and county officers in the State. The publication of the work is a prviate enterprize, and the publishers' only hope for remuneration is in its sale to those for whose convenience it was prepared. The two volumes contain about 1600 pages of matter, nearly double the quantity embraced the tevision of 1852.

The price of the work is $4 50 per volume, or $9 00 for the two volumes. Orders addressed to the subscriber wil J. J. BINGHAM. Indianapolis, Ind. June 7th, 1862.
